FARIS-STEINBICKER SCHOLARSHIP	Varies	Seniors	The Faris-Steinbicker Scholarship Fund was established by Elizabeth S. Faris, a resident of Ohio County, West Virginia, who died in 2000, to provide monetary assistance to a few students graduating from Ohio County high schools who are attending college and who have demonstrated excellence in academic and personal achievement as well as financial need. The number and dollar amount of the scholarship awarded will depend upon a variety of factors including but not limited to the discretion of the Trustee. Scholarship winners are entitled to a renewal of their scholarships annually while in college, providing they maintain a cumulative 3.0 grade point average; however, scholarships will not be awarded more than four years in a row. GUIDELINES: If you are selected, under this Scholarship, the amount of the award will be paid to the college or university on a pro rata basis during the course of your enrollment, until all funds are entirely expended. You must maintain full time enrollment status and a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 to remain eligible. ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS: All high school seniors must be residents of Ohio County, WV for the two years period immediately preceding the date of application. Applicants will be judged according to, among other factors, their academic transcript and class rank, scores on national college aptitude tests such as ACT &amp; SAT, the degree of financial need relative to other applicants, participation in extracurricular activities and community service, written recommendations from teachers and the lack of reported disciplinary problems. In order to qualify for a scholarship award, you must be accepted by and subsequently maintain full time enrollment in an accredited college or university recognized as tax-exempt under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code. This shall include traditional four year colleges and two year community colleges but excludes private, for-profit business colleges. No consideration will be taken of specific schools to which you apply or plan to attend or upon your intended course of study.
